

STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Differing Terms and Condition of Sale. Buyer hereby gives notice of its objection to and shall not be bound by any difference or additional terms and conditions. Buyer's awarding of this contract to Seller is expressly conditioned on Seller's assent to the terms and conditions detailed herein, as such terms and conditions as are expressly accepted by Buyer in writing. Receipt by Buyer of the attached acknowledgement copy herein, or (if such products are to be specially manufactured for Buyer) to constitute such assent by Seller. These terms and conditions supersede any prior or contemporaneous agreements or correspondence between Buyer and Seller. No waiver of, nor amendment or addition to, any such terms and conditions shall be binding unless it is in writing and signed by all authorized Buyer representative.

2. Assignment; Subcontracting. Seller shall not assign this order without the prior written consent of the Buyer and the rights of any permitted assignee shall be subject to all set-offs, counterclaims, and other comparable rights arising hereunder. Any assignment by Seller without such written consent shall be null and void. Seller shall also not, except in the case of raw materials or standard commercial items or except as otherwise agreed in writing by Buyer, delegate or subcontract all or substantially all of the work on any product to be supplied hereunder.

3. Substitutions; Extras. No substitutions of materials may be made without Buyer's prior written consent. No charges for extra will be allowed unless such extras have been ordered in writing by Buyer and the price therefore agreed upon.

4. Information. Any designs, drawings, specifications, or other information furnished by Buyer to Seller shall be deemed to be confidential to Buyer and have been furnished solely for the performance of this order. All such information shall also be subject to any separate Confidentiality and Use Agreement between Buyer and Seller. However, any designs, drawings, specifications, or other manufacturing information delivered by Seller to Buyer may be used by Buyer for any purpose whatsoever. The foregoing shall apply notwithstanding the presence of any contrary statement on any of such information provided by Seller.

5. Terms of Payment. The date of payment shall be computed from the later of (I) Buyer's receipt of an acceptable invoice or (II) Buyer's receipt of the products in correct quantity, together with any required documents, in apparently good order. Drafts will not be honored.

6. Compliance with Laws. Seller's performance of work and all products to be delivered shall be in accordance with any and all applicable executive orders and federal, state, municipal, and local laws, ordinance, rules, orders, requirements, and regulations.

7. Title and Risk of Loss. Title to and risk of loss or damage to each product or part to be delivered shall pass from Seller to Buyer upon delivery of such product or part at the designated FCA point.

8. Inspection and Test. All product and work in progress shall be subject to inspection and test at all times and, when practicable, during manufacture as Buyer may direct. If any inspection or test, whether preliminary or final is made on Seller's premises, Seller shall furnish, without charge, all reasonable facilities and assistance for safe and convenient inspections and tests required by the Buyer's inspectors. All inspections and tests shall be performed in such manner as will not unreasonably delay the work. Buyer shall have the right to charge any additional cost of inspection and test when articles are not ready at the time inspection is requested by Buyer. Seller shall work within, and inspect to, tolerances and limitations specified on drawings and specifications covering the work and shall make such tests as are specified, unless prior deviation there from is authorized in writing by Buyer. All products shall be subject to final inspection by Buyer after receipt by Buyer at destination. If product supplied or work performed by Seller is found to be defective, Buyer shall have the right to either require the prompt correction thereof by Seller, or correct the defect itself, at Seller's risk and expense. Buyer may back charge Seller for the cost of any corrections. If correction of such product or work is impracticable, Seller shall bear all risk for such defective product and/or work and shall, at its own expense, promptly make all necessary replacements. If Seller fails to make such replacements promptly, Buyer may procure alternate replacements and back charge to Seller all costs and expenses in current thereby. Final inspection and acceptance by Buyer shall be conclusive except for latent defects, fraud, or such gross mistakes as amount to fraud, or for any rights provided under any warranty.

9. Changes. Buyer shall have the right, from time to time, by its written Change Notices, to make changes or additions, within the scope of this order, in or to (I) the drawings, specifications, or instructions for the work, (II) the quantity, or (III) the time or method of delivery or shipment. Should any change so ordered cause a material increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, the performance of any part of the work, an equitable and adjustment shall be made in the order price or time of performance or both. Seller shall, however, as a condition precedent to any right to such adjustment, submit its written claim for such adjustment to Buyer within thirty (30) days after its receipt of Buyer's Change Notice or after any other action of buyer which Seller considers to constitute a change. Seller shall, unless written instructions to the contrary have been received from Buyer, proceed with the work as changed without interruption and without awaiting settlement of any such claim.

10. Delivery Delays. The time or times of delivery specified in this order are of the essence of this order. The delivery date(s) on this purchase order has been agreed upon by both the Buyer and Seller. If for some reason the Seller is unable to meet the original date or subsequently agreed to date and an air courier or some other method of transportation not specified by the Buyer at the time of placement has to be used, it shall be the Seller's responsibility to pay any additional transportation costs. The above stipulation does not apply to an original or previously changed delivery date which has been changed by Buyer from the original or previously changed date unless the Seller, after agreeing to meet the changed date, is unable to meet that date. Delay in delivery will be excused only if (I) such delay is due to strike, fire, wind, storm, riot, act of God, or other unforeseeable cause beyond the reasonable control and without the fault of negligence of Seller and if (II) Seller shall have notified Buyer in writing of the existence of such cause within five (5) days after the Seller knew or should have known that such cause will result in a delay in delivery. No delivery hereunder shall be made more than seven (7) days prior to the agreed upon delivery date, and Buyer shall have the right to return earlier deliveries at Seller's risk and expense or to charge to Seller any additional costs sustained thereby.

11. Termination; Cancellation. (a) Buyer shall have the right to terminate this order in whole or in part by written or telegraphic notice whenever it deems such action to be in its best interests. In the event of any termination, other than a cancellation for default of Seller, and only in such event, if Seller, at the time of such termination shall have in stock or on firm order, any raw, semi-processed, or completed materials for use in fulfilling this order, then (I) in the case of completed materials Buyer may either require delivery of all or any part of the completed materials and make payment therefore at the order price or (without taking delivery thereof) pay Seller the excess, if any, of the order price over the market price at the time of termination; and (II) in the case of raw or semi-processed materials, Buyer may either require Seller to complete and deliver all or any part of such materials at the order price, or (without taking delivery thereof) pay Seller with respect to such raw or semi-processed materials which are properly allocable to this order a proportion of the order price based on the stage of completion of such materials reduced by the value of such materials at such stage of completion; and (III) in the case of materials which Seller has on firm order for use hereunder, Buyer either take an assignment of Seller's rights under such order or pay the costs, if any of settling or discharging Seller's obligations under such order. (b) The preceding paragraph (a) shall not limit any legal rights of Buyer to cancel this order and recover any damages occasioned thereby by reason of default by Seller. Buyer shall also have the right to cancel this order without liability for articles not accepted by Buyer in the event Seller commits any act of bankruptcy, files or has filed against it a petition under the Federal Bankruptcy Act, suffers any receivership or other similar petition to be filed for or against it, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors.
